

STATEMENT FROM ERMINESKIN CREE NATION CHIEF AND COUNCIL

March 13, 2020

Due to the recent COVID-19 pandemic and the public safety measures that have been implemented by Alberta Health Services, it is our collective responsibility to ensure that the Ermineskin Cree Nation and our 4 Nations of Maskwacis are fully informed of the implications and risks that they need to be aware of during this time of uncertainty.

Ermineskin Cree Nation Staff have been directed to begin work on the development of our Emergency Preparedness Plan. As it is developed it will be shared with the Ermineskin Cree Nation citizens.

For all Ermineskin Cree Nation citizens, please rest assured that all safety measures and necessary precautions will be undertaken to safeguard our nation.

Citizens with internet are advised to keep updated on the evolving situation and any additional measures posted on the Alberta Health Services website.
