Employment Opportunity

Reaching Home Coordinator

Full-Time Term contract- 12 months,
Pay Range: $65,000.00-$75,000.00.
Competition No: CT6FN-26-13

The Confederacy of Treaty Six First Nations (CT6FN) is a non-profit Political and Treaty Organization (PTO) that has been mandated by the Chiefs and Elders of Treaty No. 6 to advocate, protect, and enhance Treaty rights by monitoring legislation and policies that affect Treaty rights.

The Confederacy of Treaty Six First Nations (CT6FN) is seeking a dedicated and collaborative Reaching Home Coordinator to lead the coordination of homelessness prevention, housing stability, affordable housing, and multi-family housing initiatives. This is an opportunity to contribute to meaningful projects that promote housing security, strengthen partnerships, and help build sustainable housing solutions.

This opportunity offers the following incentives:

- Competitive Salary
- Group Benefits: Extended health, dental, and life insurance.
- Pension Plan: Supporting your long-term financial future.
- Employee Engagement Events: Opportunities to connect, collaborate, and celebrate with colleagues.

Responsibilities

- Coordinate the planning, implementation, and monitoring of Reaching Home initiatives and housing projects.
- Support homelessness prevention, housing stability, shelter diversion, affordable housing, and multi-family housing development.
- Build partnerships with Treaty Six Member Nations, government agencies, housing providers, developers, and service organizations.
- Facilitate Member Nation engagement sessions, meetings, and housing forums.
- Research housing needs, service gaps, funding opportunities, and potential development projects.
- Monitor project timelines, expenditures, deliverables, risks, and funding compliance.
- Collect program data and prepare reports, briefing notes, and recommendations for the CEO and funders.
- Maintain accurate records, protect confidential information, and ensure compliance with organizational policies.

Education, Qualifications, and Work Experience

- Post-secondary education in housing, social sciences, public administration, community development, or a related field.
- Three to five (3–5) years of relevant experience in housing, homelessness services, community development, or program coordination.
- Knowledge of Reaching Home, Housing First principles, Indigenous housing priorities, and culturally safe practices.
- Experience with project management, budgets, funding agreements, reporting, and partnership development.
- Strong communication, organizational, research, and relationship-building skills.
- Experience with housing development projects or staff supervision is an asset.
- Demonstrated flexibility and the ability to work in a fast-paced, challenging environment.
- The ability to communicate in one of the affiliated First Nations of the Confederacy (Cree, Nakoda, Dene, Saulteaux) is a definite asset.
- Preference will be given to Treaty Six First Nation Members.

Condition of Employment

- Clear Criminal Records
- Intervention Record Check.
- Valid driver's license.
- reliable transportation and the ability to travel overnight as necessary.
