MANDATES/FUNCTIONS

Treaty Research

- Determine status of treaty rights.

Advocacy

- Act as a collective voice on behalf of Treaty #6 First Nations through the direction of the Chiefs.
- Assist with the dissemination of information to non-Treaty #6 members.
- Assert Treaty rights through the direction of the Chiefs.
- Assist with the protection of Treaty rights through the direction of the Chiefs.
- Monitor the infringement of Treaty rights through the direction of the Chiefs.
- Assist with lobbying initiatives.
- The Confederacy is not designed to deliver program and services.

Liaison

- Act as a liaison between First Nations.

Policy Development

- Assist with the development of policies regarding specific program areas, i.e.: education, social development, health, etc.

Education

- Act as a clearing house of information regarding Treaties.
- Assist with the education of Treaty #6 members on their Treaty rights.

NB: The Confederacy shall not encroach on Tribal Councils' powers.

- The Confederacy would act in an advisory capacity and act as a liaison between the First Nations and Tribal Councils.
- First Nations/Tribal Councils shall continue to deliver and administer programs (the Confederacy will not infringe on this right).
- The Confederacy should prove to be a cost effective structure as it should minimize the amount of resources necessary for each Tribal Council or First Nation to perform the same services.

FIRST NATIONS AND/OR TRIBAL COUNCILS WOULD CONTINUE TO DELIVER PROGRAMS IN THIS EXAMPLE OF A CENTRALIZED DELIVERY SYSTEM OF SERVICES.
